

Working together, we must continue to strengthen—not weaken—our national and international efforts to combat AIDS and other infectious diseases.

We must work to achieve the Obama Administration's goal of an AIDS-free generation.

We must honor the memory of those we have lost and act on our hope, optimism, and determination to end the HIV/AIDS pandemic.

We must continue to work with programs and clinics, like the Harris County Hospital District (HCHD), who are treating and caring for patients with HIV/AIDS.

In 1989, HCHD opened Thomas Street Health Center, the first free-standing facility dedicated to outpatient HIV/AIDS care in the nation. The center has become the cornerstone of all HIV/AIDS care available to Harris County residents.

The Thomas Street Health Center has dedicated their services to about 25 percent of Harris County's HIV/AIDS.

Annually, the health center, along with HCHD, serves 4,463 unique patients for about 37,000 patients' visits.

We will continue to fight a tough fight against HIV and AIDS. We will continue to strengthen and support centers like Thomas Street Health Center who work diligently with HIV/AIDS patients.

Our focus on HIV/AIDS prevention and awareness will be to ensure all of our friends, relatives and children live healthy and full lives.

HONORING MAYOR JIM HAGGERTON OF TUKWILA, WASHINGTON

HON. ADAM SMITH

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 1, 2015

Mr. SMITH of Washington. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor Jim Haggerton, Mayor of Tukwila, Washington, on his retirement.

There have been few greater champions for the City of Tukwila than Jim Haggerton. For over four decades, Jim has dedicated himself to bettering his community in many ways. After concluding his service in the U.S. Marine Corps, Jim and his wife, Carol, purchased their home in the McMicken Heights neighborhood in 1972. There, they raised their two children, Terri and Care.

Despite the rigors of a hectic schedule with a young family and a burgeoning career, Jim found time to devote to his city. He served nine years on Tukwila's Planning Commission, helping to guide the city through a period of tremendous growth. He built on this service when he was elected to serve as a Councilmember; a position that he held for thirteen years. Then, in 2007, he was elected as Tukwila's Mayor.

As Mayor, Jim led the successful effort to develop and implement the city's first Strategic Plan, which was notable for its creation of the award-winning Community Connectors program. He also led the negotiations for dozens of major development and public infrastructure projects that have benefited the entire region. These include Jim's efforts to bring transit options to Tukwila, including light and heavy rail. Expanded transit access has accompanied and supported the development of commercial projects that attract commerce from surrounding communities.

In addition to his work at City Hall, Jim has been a tireless advocate for Tukwila in a long list of regional organizations. He has served on the Board of Directors for the Association of Washington Cities, Sound Cities Association, and the Cascade Water Alliance. He also served as the President of the Southcenter Rotary Club and is a member of the American Legion Post 235 in Tukwila.

As Jim passes the baton following his decades of service, he leaves the city on strong footing. Tukwila today has a AA rating from Standard and Poors, despite the challenges posed by the recession and ongoing recovery. Engagement with the community has never been stronger, either. This past year, Tukwila was recognized for its efforts to engage the city's diverse communities in the update of Tukwila's Comprehensive Plan.

Mr. Speaker, it is with great honor that I recognize Mr. Jim Haggerton for his years of service and his tremendous impact on the City of Tukwila and King County.

RECOGNIZING THE 60TH ANNIVERSARY OF ROSA PARKS' ACT OF CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE

HON. JOHN CONYERS, JR.

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 1, 2015

Mr. CONYERS. Mr. Speaker, sixty years ago today, Rosa Parks refused to give up her seat on a bus in Montgomery, Alabama. Through a simple act of civil disobedience, she inspired a movement, gained worldwide acclaim, and secured a place in American history.

However, on that cold morning in Montgomery, Mrs. Parks was not creating a legacy—she simply saw a wrong and wanted to right it. She showed us that any person can make a difference if they have the strength of their convictions. By simply sitting down on the bus, she turned an ordinary act into something extraordinary, and inspired thousands in Montgomery—and later across America—to do the same.

But Mrs. Parks is more than just a figure to be revered—she is an example to be upheld. And on days like today, we must ask ourselves whether we honor her with our actions as well as our words.

Because of the work of Mrs. Parks and her contemporaries, our nation is an undeniably different place than it was sixty years ago. Jim Crow is no longer the law of the South. Segregation is no longer legally mandated. An African-American is President and the Congressional Black Caucus counts 43 members.
